
Malek Khazina (or Maalek Khazinah) is an Islamic religious guidance book. It is considered to be the second most important text after the Quran. Within it, there are fifty books which are called surahs or chapters. One of these chapters is khazina which has two parts: "Secondary khazina" and "Final khazina". The Secondary khazinia contains Duaa Fatihah, Duaa al-Istighfar, Duaa al-Tawbah, some daurah of Ibn Masoud and other good dauras. Mainly every chapter has some dauras related to it by Imam Ali Reza. Every khazina has a name of the most famous person who wrote it. For example, khazina of Fatimah Zahra contains duaas according to Fatimah Zahra which is called "fatiyyah". The name is in Persian and means "for Fatimah". In Arabic, the book is known as Malek Khazin.

In popular culture, Malek Khazin has been used as a title in a number of films and novels: The story in akhbarnameh spiritualism is based on malek khazin.

The Arabic title for Great Khazin is "Malek Khazin". The Persian title is "Akbarnameh".
